1. INTRODUCTION

This Policy is primarily framed based on Section 178(3) of the Companies Act, 2013 (the “Act”) and Regulation 19 read with Part D of the Schedule II to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as “Listing Regulations”) which stipulates that the Nomination & Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) shall formulate the criteria for determining qualifications, positive attributes and independence of a director and recommend to the Board a policy, relating to the remuneration for the directors, key managerial personnel (“KMP”) and other employees.

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Nirbhay Colours India Limited (the “Company” or “Nirbhay”), has adopted the following Remuneration Policy (the “Policy”), upon the recommendation of the NRC, effective from December 01, 2015 and further amended on May 06, 2022, as required under Section 178(3) of the Act and Regulation 19 read with Part D of Schedule II to the Listing Regulations.

The philosophy for remuneration of directors, KMP and all other employees of Nirbhay is based on the commitment of fostering a culture of leadership with trust. The Remuneration Policy is aligned to this philosophy.

2. PURPOSE / OBJECTIVE OF THE POLICY

The Remuneration Policy of the Company is designed to attract, motivate, improve productivity and retain manpower, by creating a congenial work environment, encouraging initiatives, personal growth and team work, and inculcating a sense of belonging and involvement, besides offering appropriate remuneration packages and superannuation benefits.

The Policy emphasize on promoting talent and to ensure long term sustainability of talented managerial persons and create competitive advantage. The Policy reflects the Company’s objectives for good corporate governance as well as sustained long term value creation for shareholders.

The guiding principle is that the remuneration and the other terms of employment should effectively help in attracting and retaining committed and competent personnel. While designing remuneration packages, industry practices and cost of living are also taken into consideration.

The objective of the Policy is to ensure that:

- a) the level and composition of remuneration is reasonable and sufficient to attract, retain and motivate directors of the quality required to run the company successfully;
- b) relationship of remuneration to performance is clear and meets appropriate performance benchmarks; and

 - c. consider the time commitments of the candidates
6. The Company shall not appoint or continue the employment of any person as managing director/executive director who has attained the age of seventy years and shall not continue or appoint non-executive or independent director who has attained the age of seventy-five years.

Provided that the term of the person holding this position may be extended at the discretion of the Committee beyond the age of seventy years/seventy-five years with the approval of shareholders by passing a special resolution based on the explanatory statement annexed to the notice for such motion indicating the justification for extension of appointment beyond seventy years/seventy-five years as the case may be.

7. A whole-time KMP of the Company shall not hold office in more than one company except in its subsidiary company at the same time. However, a whole-time KMP can be appointed as a director in any company, with the permission of the Board of Directors of the Company.
8. The Company shall not appoint any resigning independent director, as whole-time director, unless a period of one year has elapsed from the date of resignation as an independent director.

(b) Term / Tenure:

1. Managing Director / Whole-time Director:

The Company shall appoint or re-appoint any person as its Managing Director and CEO or Whole-time Director for a term not exceeding five years at a time. No re-appointment shall be made earlier than one year before the expiry of term.

2. Independent Director:

An Independent Director shall hold office for a term up to five consecutive years on the Board of the Company and will be eligible for re-appointment in the manner as specified under the Act and the Listing Regulations.

No Independent Director shall hold office for more than two consecutive terms, but such independent director shall be eligible for appointment after expiry of three years of ceasing to become an Independent Director.

Provided that an independent director shall not, during the said period of three years, be appointed in or be associated with the Company in any other capacity, either directly or indirectly. At the time of appointment of independent director, it should be ensured that number of Boards on which such independent director serves, is restricted to applicable regulations in force.

(c) Removal:

Due to reasons for any disqualification mentioned in the Act, rules made thereunder or under any other applicable Act, rules and regulations, the Committee may recommend, to the Board with reasons recorded in writing, removal of a Director, KMP or Senior Management subject to the provisions and compliance of the said Act, rules and regulations.

(d) Retirement:

The Directors, KMP and Senior Management shall retire as per the applicable provisions of the Act and the prevailing policy of the Company. The Board will have the discretion to retain the Directors, KMP and Senior Management in the same position / remuneration or otherwise, even after attaining the retirement age, for the benefit of the Company.

8. PART – C: POLICY RELATING TO THE REMUNERATION FOR DIRECTORS, KMP AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT:

(a) General:

1. The remuneration / compensation / commission etc. to be paid to Directors will be determined by the Committee and recommended to the Board for approval.
2. The remuneration and commission to be paid to the Managing Director/Whole-time Director shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Act, and the rules made thereunder.
3. Increments to the existing remuneration / compensation structure may be recommended by the Committee to the Board which should be within the limits approved by the Shareholders in the case of Managing Director/ Whole-time Director.

(b) Remuneration to KMP and Senior Management:

The Board of Directors, in consultation with the Managing Director/ HR Head of the Company, shall specify and list down the employees to be considered as “senior management”, without diluting the categories defined herein above, on an annual basis, and the remuneration of such employees shall be subject to recommendation of NRC and approval of the Board of Directors of the Company.

The pay program for KMP and Senior Management has been designed around three primary pay components: Base/Fixed Pay, Performance Bonus and Stock Incentives.

These three components together constitute the “Total Rewards” of the KMP and Senior Management.

1. Base/ Fixed pay: It is guaranteed pay and paid periodically, usually monthly or bi-monthly or as per payroll policy of the Company.
2. Performance Bonus: Cash bonus, payable on the achievement of objective and quantifiable key performance indicators (KPI) as established by the Committee.
3. Stock Incentives: Stock or Equity based incentives can be either time based or performance-based equity grants. Time based stock incentives, in the form of Restricted Stock Units (RSUs), if any and/or stock options, are vested based on continuation of service. Performance based stock incentives, in the form of Stock Options and/or RSUs, vest upon the achievement of certain performance parameters. The stock incentives are governed by the ESOP Plans as approved by the shareholders or any other plans as may be amended.

The total rewards for KMP and Senior Management is designed to ensure their continued alignment with organizational goals. The Committee aims to ensure that KMP and Senior Management pay is reflective of market pay, consisting of a mix of base/ fixed pay, performance bonus and stock incentives.

The emphasis on stock incentives ensures alignment with shareholders’ interests, through a continued focus on the Company’s sustainable, long-term performance.

(c) Remuneration to other employees:

The compensation for other employees would be as per the compensation policy of the Company, as revised through the annual compensation review process from time to time and approved by the Managing Director/Chief Executive Officer, in consultation with the Head – HR.

(d) Minimum remuneration to Whole-time Directors:

If, in any financial year, the Company has no profits or its profits are inadequate, the Company shall pay remuneration to its whole-time directors in accordance with the provisions of Schedule V to the Act.

The Managing Director/ Whole Time Directors are entitled to customary non-monetary benefits such as company cars, furnished accommodation, health care benefits, leave travel, communication facilities, etc.

(e) Remuneration to Non-Executive / Independent Directors:

Remuneration: The remuneration payable to each Non-Executive Director is based on the remuneration structure as determined by the Board, and is revised from time to time, depending on individual contribution, the Company's performance, and the provisions of the Act and the rules made thereunder.

If, in any financial year, the Company has no profits or its profits are inadequate, the Company shall pay remuneration to its non-executive / independent directors in accordance with the provisions of Schedule V to the Act.

- i. Stock incentive: The independent directors shall not be entitled to any stock incentive of the Company.
- ii. The remuneration to the non-executive directors (including independent directors) may be paid within the monetary limit approved by shareholders, subject to the limit not exceeding 1% of the profits of the Company computed as per the applicable provisions of the Act.

9. PREMIUM ON INSURANCE POLICY

Where any insurance is taken by the Company on behalf of its non-executive directors, for indemnifying them against any liability, the premium paid on such insurance shall not be treated as part of the remuneration.

Where any insurance is taken by the Company on behalf of its MD/ EDs, KMP and any other employees for indemnifying them against any liability in respect of any negligence, default, misfeasance, breach of duty or breach of trust for which they may be guilty in relation to the Company, the premium paid on such insurance shall not be treated as part of the remuneration.

Provided that if such person is proved to be guilty, the premium paid on such insurance shall be treated as part of the remuneration.

10. REMUNERATION PAYABLE TO DIRECTOR FOR SERVICES RENDERED IN OTHER CAPACITY

The remuneration payable to the Directors shall be inclusive of any remuneration payable for services rendered by such Director in any other capacity unless:

- a) The services rendered are of a professional nature; and
- b) The NRC is of the opinion that the director possesses requisite qualification for the practice of the profession.

11. REMUNERATION PAYABLE TO OTHER EMPLOYEES

The remuneration of other employees is fixed from time to time as per the guiding principles outlined above and considering industry standards and cost of living.

In addition to basic salary, they are also provided perquisites, allowances and retirement benefits as per schemes of the Company and statutory requirements, where applicable. Policy of motivation/ reward/ severance payments is applicable to this category of personnel as in the case of those in the management cadre.

12. LOAN TO KMP, SENIOR MANAGEMENT PERSONNEL AND OTHER EMPLOYEES OF THE COMPANY (EXCEPT DIRECTOR, WHICH IS GOVERNED BY SECTION 185 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013)

2. The loan may be granted/ sanctioned for purchase of vehicle, house, and medical treatment of self and family dependent or to meet other personal expenditure.
3. The loan may be given at a concessional rate of interest or interest free at the sole discretion of the Management.
4. The amount of loan, repayment period and other relevant terms & conditions may be decided by the Management from time to time.

14. EVALUATION

The NRC shall carry out evaluation of performance of all directors in every year. The performance evaluation of independent directors shall be done by the entire Board of Directors, excluding the director being evaluated.

While doing the evaluation of independent directors, not only their performance, but fulfilment of the continuing independence criteria by them, shall also be considered.

On the basis of the report of performance evaluation, it shall be determined whether to extend or continue the term of appointment of the independent director(s).

Further, the independent directors of the Company shall hold at least one meeting in a financial year, without the attendance of the non-independent directors and the members of the management.

Such meeting shall:

- a) Review the performance of non-independent directors and the Board as a whole;
- b) Review the performance of the Chairperson of the Company, taking into account the views of executive directors and non-executive directors.

15. DEVIATION FROM THE REMUNERATION POLICY

This Remuneration Policy shall continue to guide all future employment of Directors, Senior Management Personnel including Key Managerial Personnel and other employees. Any departure from the Policy can be undertaken only with the approval of the Board of Directors.

16. AMENDMENTS

This Policy shall be reviewed by the NRC and recommended to the Board of Directors, as and when considered necessary as per statutory and business requirements of the Company. The Company reserves its rights to alter, modify, add, delete or amend any of the provisions of this Policy.

17. DISCLOSURES
